

GIRL-GUIDE

Girl Guide is an organization found worldwide, which was originally and still largely designed for girls and women only. This organization was introduced in 1909.

The Bangladesh Girl Guides Association is the national Guiding organization of Bangladesh. It serves 49,975 members (as of 2003). Girl guiding in today Bangladesh started in 1928.

Girl-Guides of Shaheed Bir Uttam LT. Anwar Girls' College are also a part of Bangladesh Girl Guides Association and have been working relentlessly for the betterment of our country. Like any other guide they are working for world peace, mental health development, service to the helpless people, clean environment and corruption free country.

There are total 185 Girl-Guides and 160 Yellow Birds in our institution. They work with unity and discipline and encourage other girls to work properly for the betterment of the school.

INCHARGE GUIDE TEACHERS

SAGC girl guide team couldn't come this far without the guidance of the respected teachers. They have been the best mentor and best ideal to every girl-guide. They made the guides learn how to be prepared for every situation. They made them learn the rules and importance of discipline in every spheres. Without them it would be impossible for the guide team to come this far.

YELLOW BIRD

Yellow Birds are primary school students from the age of 6 to 10 years who are motivated to help their parents at home. They are trained through participation in games. The young girls learn teamwork, poetry recitation, public speaking and sharing. The main motto of yellow bird is to help others. And the yellow birds of SAGC are very helpful and cooperative. They obey their elders and work accordingly. Every year they participate in PT on the annual sports day. Apart from that they participate in other competitions inside school and also outside the school and earn prizes and bring honor for our school. We pray for their better future and so they become successful girl guides in the following time.

Basic principles of Girl Guide

- To do duty to the Creator
- To do duty to others
- To do duty to self

The motto :

- The motto of the girl-guide is “Be prepared”.

*Every guide always remain ready to do good to others,
“be prepared” means to be ever ready to help others in need.*

The oath :

- To discharge duty towards creator and country
- To discharged duty towards mankind everyday
- To follow the rules of guide strictly.

ACTIVITIES

Girl-Guiding an integral part of providing the best opportunities for girls of all ages to be the best version of themselves.

Girl-Guide is very popular in Tree plantation program. Every year more than 100 of trees are planted by the guide team in and outside of the school. The focus of this is to make a fresher and greener world. This also encourages every girl to know about the importance of tree plantation.

Every year on the day of annual sports the Girl Guide team pulls off an amazing parade performance. Representing the school with proper appearance and performance earns the school an amazing reputation.

Other than this on every special programs Girl Guide team remains present to be part of the volunteer team and helps the day to go smooth and joyful . They have been volunteering in social gatherings of the school and special programs maintaining proper manners and earning the school honor and respect.

Apart from that each year all the girl guides perform PT in the annual sports day with our junior guide team or we can say the Yellow Bird team. SAGC girl-guide team also successfully performed day camp at the school. They built tents performed fun tasks, made their food and had an excellent day. All of these are performed by the girl -guide team SAGC.

ACHIEVEMENTS

"The value of achievement lies in the achieving." - Albert Einstein.
Like sir Albert Einstein's saying the importance of the achievement lies in gaining the achievement.

The SAGC girl-guide team also with firm belief in this quote has been proving themselves from the very beginning. Be it a small step like helping others or a big step like volunteering various events they have been bringing uttermost honor and respect for SAGC and definitely also for the society. They have earned respect and honor by doing good results and apart from academic activities they have been doing great in co-curriculum activities like: sports, cultural competitions, environmental fest and many more. Not only that they are known to have the best disciplined life, they also encourage other to the same.

Best Guide teacher of 2018 within the Thana.

Our guide teacher Salma Akter not only once but twice been rewarded as the best teacher for girl guides, also they successfully performed day camps and outdoor camps. Apart from that, they take part in events inside their school and also other schools. As a mentor they are nothing but the best for the SAGC girl-guide team.

One of the most honorable achievements from SAGC girl-guide team is the one from the World Thinking Day. One of our girl guide gave out her project and won at the World Thinking Day event. This was a great proud moment for the whole school and the guide team.

Best Girl-Guide team of 2018 within the Thana

Best Guide teacher of 2017 within the Thana.

We hope they keep achieving these in future and make SAGC proud .

All in all the girl-guide team of SAGC are really important for the school. They convey their duties perfectly, they have brought so many achievements and honor for the school and even the teachers put so much effort to do everything perfectly, at every event they volunteer and ensure discipline throughout the event. It's a matter of great pride that our school has a girl-guide team like this. The school really looks forward to them and prays for their better future and so they keep bringing honor, respect and love like they have been doing.
